Oscar Wilde: "The Canterville Ghost"

Recently I found this book in the school library. And I like it, because Oscar Wilde is a true master and he has a very big vocabulary, there for in the book he used to many metaphors and similes. This story about Ghost and the little girl is a very beautiful fairy tale. Besides, I love stories about old England and the customs of that time. I chose English translation, because the book have many idioms and it's difficult to translate them into Russian. I'm not sure, but I think Oscar Wilde is the quite popular author and some of his works are in the school program, so the library must have books.
